

Grants for Conferences, Symposia and Workshops

Terms of Acceptance

Successful applicants to the Social History Society's scheme for providing financial support for conferences, symposia and workshops agree to abide by the following terms of acceptance:

1. The support of the Social History Society will be acknowledged in all publicity material, material provided for delegates to the conference, symposia or workshop and in any subsequent publicity and/or publications. We suggest using the following form of words:

The organisers/authors (delete as appropriate) gratefully acknowledge the support of the Social History Society.

2. The Social History Society logo will appear on publicity material and material provided for delegates. It will appear on any websites associated with, or being used to publicise or provide post-event access to (e.g. in the form of podcasts) the conference, symposia or workshop for which the Society provided support.
3. The organisers will submit a 250 word Report on the event supported within three months of the event to the Social History Society. This must be emailed as a Word document to the Social History Society's Administrative Secretary Dr Philip Booth at socialhistorysoc@gmail.com.

Reports should include:

- Numbers attending
- Highlights and/or key points discussed
- Plans for dissemination
- Any future events/networks emerging from this (if relevant)
- Financial statement on how the grant was spent.
